EDUCATION

FrontEnd Dev   Jan 2022 - Present
Self-taught, Tbilisi

Motivated by my passion for problem-solving, I have pursued programming as a self-taught developer. My learning journey has been guided by reputable online resources, such as w3schools.com and freecodecamp.org. Currently, I have a solid foundation in HTML, CSS, and JavaScript, and am currently improving my skills in ReactJS. I am committed to continually advancing my knowledge and expertise in front-end web development and eager to bring my self-taught experience to a professional setting.

EMPLOYMENT

Project manager assistant   Apr 2016 - Dec 2019
CGGC, Tbilisi

CGGC is a Chinese construction company specializing in energy and infrastructure projects. In the company, I performed the duties of project manager assistant and translator.

ESL Teacher   Jan 2020 - Present
self-employed, Tbilisi

I teach English language to school age children. My students are mostly from China. I work remotely.

CUSTOM SECTION

At first glance, you may wonder why you should hire me, given my limited experience and foreign background. However, I am a loyal and dedicated employee, having never left a job for a better salary. As a beginner programmer, I am eager to learn and contribute to your company, and I am a friendly and open-minded team player.
